

Cochrane
Crowd

You can make a difference
Help us curate and deliver health evidence

Our crowd is made up of valued contributors who curate high-quality health evidence.

Volunteers from around the world help us identify the research we need to determine if a treatment or diagnostic test works.

I wanted to contribute

It took 30 seconds to sign up

I like that I can see where I went wrong - I'm learning

I've found ten randomised trials already!

The training was fun, and brief!

I can choose to work on records of personal interest to me - I'm interested in nutrition

I do ten minutes each day on my commute to work

I love contributing this way. It fits around my busy life!

Trusted evidence.
Informed decisions.
Better health.
